THE GIRAFFE

A long tall neck and four long legs
And a spotty, dotty body in between,
He has great fun chewing leaves like gum,
In his daily giraffe routine.
You never hear him say on a warm and sunny day
That he'd rather be somewhere else.
You never hear a sound,
Or a snort, or a laugh,
He is short on complaining, the tall giraffe.

He eats the leaves at the tops of trees
And he chooses what to chew with care.
He's really out of luck if his tongue gets stuck
When he's having a snack up there.
You never hear him say on a warm and sunny day
That he'd rather eat something else.
You never hear a sound,
Or a snort, or a laugh,
He is short on complaining, the tall giraffe.
