The "Can't Wait 'til I'm Older" Blues

Can't wait 'til I'm older and get my own car;
A sporty red model so I can go far.
I'll be paying for bank loans, insurance and gas,
repair work, inspections and tune-ups.
I've got the "can't wait 'til I'm older,
so I can wish I were younger" blues.

Can't wait 'til I'm older and get a great job.
I'll make lots of money, just piles and gobs.
I'll have to pay taxes, a mortgage, deductions galore,
and work overtime to get more.
I've got the "can't wait 'til I'm older,
so I can wish I were younger" blues.

INSTRUMENTAL VERSE

Can't wait 'til I'm older and get my own place.
And then my dear mother won't be in my face.
I'll do my own cleaning and cooking
and shopping and laundry and errands, and pay my own bills.
I've got the "can't wait 'til I'm older,
so I can wish I were younger" blues.
