Singin' the Blues

Please take my bicycle,
my shiny red bicycle.

It's let me down for the very last time.

I have skinned both my knees, I'm hurtin', so baby please,
please take my bicycle,
I'm singin' the blues.

Please take my chewing gum,
my very best bubble gum.

It's let me down for the very last time.

Bubbles have busted, they cannot be trusted.

Please take my chewing gum,
I'm singin' the blues.

Bicycles and chewing gum,
busted bubble dreams.
Age, it makes no matter
when blue is how everything seems.

You see, I'm not old enough to own my own pickup truck.

Too young to date, and my momma's not in jail.

I don't mind rainy days,
my dog has not run away,
but all the same, I am singin' the blues.

I don't mind rainy days,
my dog has not run away,
but all the same, I am singin' the blues.

But all the same, I am singin' the blues.

But all the same, I am singin' the blues. Oh yeah.
